Gīta Govinda

The Gīta Govinda of Jayadeva is a major lyrical Sanskrit poem of 12th Century. Soon after its composition, it permeated across all parts of India and left a deep and abiding influence. It continues to capture the imagination of the poets, painters, musicians, dancers and devotees, based on the love play of Krishna and Radha, their union, separation and re-union. The IGNCA selected six aṣṭapadīs namely Lalitalavaṅga, Harirhamugdha, Dhīrasamīre, Paśyati Diśidiśi, Yāhi Mādhava and Kuru Yadunandana for the present multimedia production.

The project has been conceived, visualised and designed by Dr. Kapila Vatsyayan, an internationally acclaimed authority and pioneer of inter and multi-disciplinary studies in the humanities, and the arts. It was completed under her guidance and overall supervision. She is the author of many definitive monographs on Gīta Govinda including those on the diverse painting schools, specially Mewar, Jaipur, Darbhanga, Bundi and Assam.

This output is re-engineered from the content jointly prepared by the IGNCA and Xerox Palo Alto Research Centre (PARC) for the 'Interactive Multimedia Experience' exhibition held in 1997 at IGNCA.
